Student Assistant, VPVA Office

Overview:
Rutgers Biomedical and Health Sciences (RBHS) takes an integrated approach to educating students, providing clinical care, and conducting research, all with the goal of improving human health.

Job Summary:
The RBHS Office for Violence Prevention and Victim Assistance (VPVA) is looking for a student assistant to support our work in addressing interpersonal violence. Preferred qualifications:

- Knowledge of sexual assault, harassment, dating violence, and stalking;
- Experience working with diverse populations in a campus setting;
- Strong organizational, presentation, and communication skills;
- Experience with graphic design, social media, and digital formatting;
- Ability to travel between Newark and Piscataway RBHS locations;
- Familiarity with prevention education or awareness programming;
- Preferred training as a confidential victim advocate

Position: Part-Time, 20 hours maximum/week
$15/hour Graduate Assistant wage

For questions regarding the position, email vpva@rbhs.rutgers.edu

To apply, see posting on Rutgers Job Portal:
https://jobs.rutgers.edu/postings/115324
Posting Number 20ST0976